

STOP further consolidation of public media! I have personally experienced the arrogant lack of response to legitimate inquiries regarding service by large corporate radio broadcasters.

Existing media concentration has already had a pernicious effect on the development and expression of independent opinion. Further concentration of any media is not in the public interest.

Lane Soholt